*If you auditioned and do not see your name listed anywhere, it is a mistake. We do not cut anyone from our shows and you will be in the chorus.

Please highlight your script and come back from the holidays having read through your lines and familiarized yourself with the script. We will have a rehearsal calendar for you when you return.

Friday, December 10th 3:30-5 we will have our first table read with all named characters! Happy Holidays!
